An invitation to join the

BALLARAT TRAMWAY MUSEUM

The Ballarat Tramway Museum Inc. (Association No: A0031819K) is a voluntary Association dedicated to preserving for future generations a portion of the former State Electricity Commission's tramway system which operated in Ballarat until 1971.

The Museum invites you to become a member of our enthusiastic team of volunteer supporters. Workers are most welcome and we offer a range of tasks including:

- Welcoming and guiding visitors at the Museum
- Conducting and driving trams
- Repairing and maintaining the Museum's trams, track and overhead
- Archival research

There is no obligation to take part in any of the Museum's activities.

Members receive the Museum's newsletter Fares Please! every other month and are entitled to free rides on the Museum's trams. Ballarat Tramway eNews is also available by email to all members and friends.

The Annual General Meeting, usually held in November, is an occasion for members to get together. Afternoon tea is served after the meeting. Other gatherings and special days are held from time to time. The Museum also sells a range of souvenirs and publications at a discount to Members. They are also available via Mail Order.

Further information is available:
